

WEEKLY WORD

Friday 12th February 2021

Random Acts of Kindness Week 14th—20th February

“ Kindness is being someone who makes everyone feel like a somebody. ”

“ No act of kindness is too small. The gift of kindness may start as a small ripple that over time can turn into a tidal wave affecting the lives of many. ”

😊 Make someone smile 😊

Do you need a little help at this time?

Do you not qualify for free school meals?

Contact Julie Laidler at the C.A.F.É Together project on 07935837131 to see how they can help.

Next week is the half-term holiday so there will be no home learning set.

Happy holidays!

Learning will recommence Monday 22nd February.

Wild about Winter

'Wild about Winter' is a new project with artists and local people in East Durham, led by The Barn at Easington, with a specially commissioned story, in three parts, that celebrates the beauty and magic of winter.

Get involved at: www.facebook.com/groups/wildaboutwinter

We will help you to make your own art pieces using the natural materials and objects around you. 'How to' videos, posted online, will support you to take part and we'll give you info to draw your attention to the natural fauna and flora on your doorsteps. Photograph the details and small changes for us as winter slowly turns into spring.

"We hope these creative activities will provide some comfort and joy during this latest lockdown. We invite you to 'slow down' and to explore your immediate local surroundings and we look forward to seeing the results!"

In collaboration with our friends from the National Trust and Durham Heritage Coast you can ask questions about those things within nature that you see in your gardens and as part of your local daily walks. For those unable to take part online, a number of Wild About Winter art packs are being delivered to local families through East Durham Trust, Café Together, Shotton Partnership and Blackhall Community Centre.
